TO REGULATE DANCE HALLS

Lengthy Petition Presented to Council for Abolishment. — Ordinance Regulating Such Institutions Will be Passed.

Durant's city council in special session Tuesday night, considered petitions bearing the names of over four hundred people of the city, asking that the city council abolish the two dance halls recently opened in the city, and the result of the petitions was that the city attorney and the ordinance committee were given instructions to draw up an ordinance regulating the conduct of such places, and prescribing the minimum age of persons who may be permitted to patronize them.

The action was the direct result of efforts of the Federated Women's Clubs, who at their last meeting passed a resolution condemning such institutions as having a bad moral effect upon the young people of the community. Monday and Tuesday ladies of the clubs went about the city securing signatures to the petitions asking the council to have the places closed up.

Geo. H. Harris, president of the council, at the request of the ladies, called a special session of the council Tuesday night, at which time the petitions were presented and the names read. Talks were made to the council backing up the petitions by Prof. Renick of the Central Ward school, Prof. Cantrell and Prof. Turner, and Mesdames W. B. Morrison and A. Linscheid. It is probable that the ordinance will be ready for the consideration of the council at the next meeting of that body.

There are two places which have been made the target of the fight. One of them is over the Columbia Steam Laundry building on First street, and the other is over the Harbage stable on Main.

SOUTHERN RECEPTION

The annual Southern Reception of the Daughters of the Confederacy held Friday at the Elks' Home was an unusually enjoyable affair and was attended by such a throng of people that the spacious club rooms accommodated them with difficulty. The novelty of the occasion was the receiving line, in which members of the Daughters impersonated in costume the wife of one of the famous Confederate generals. The receiving line was as follows: Miss Edl Spears, Miss Winnie Davis; Mrs. J. W. Hannon, Mrs. John B. Gordon, Georgia; Mrs. D. Work, Mrs. Robert E. Lee, Virginia; Mrs. Lewis Paulin, Mrs. Jubal Early, Louisiana; Mrs. Jewell Hicks, Mrs. Pat Cleburne, Arkansas; Mrs. Nannie Thurmond, Mrs. Beauregard, Louisiana; Mrs. L. L. Clark, Mrs. Joe Wheeler, Alabama; Mrs. W. M. Hynds, Mrs. Longstreet, Georgia; Mrs. Birchfield, Mrs. N. B. Forrest, Tennessee; Mrs. N. D. White, Mrs. Breckenridge, Kentucky; Mrs. C. E. England, Mrs. Joe Bailey, Tex.; Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Sterling Price, Maryland; Mrs. Hudspeeth, Mrs. John Morgan, Kentucky; Mrs. Ed Spears, Mrs. John H. Reagan, Texas; Mrs. Bess White, Pleasant Porter, Oklahoma; Mrs. Boyd Abbott, Mrs. Gen. Wright, Tennessee.

Following the "passing of the line" came the grand march, led by Mesdames J. W. Hannon and Ed L. Spears, and the program that followed was capped by the dancing of the Virginia Reel and other old dances. All of the dances were well known to old-timers. Those participating in the program of the evening were: Mrs. Lewis Paulin, Miss Vivian Luck, Miss Bradford, S. E. Normal Sextette, Miss Jordan, and Col. Jim Tom Story.

INCREASED OATS ACREAGE

Reports from various parts of the county indicate that practically all the oats have been planted, and that the acreage this year is at least 25 per cent larger than last year. The habit of fall plowing seems to have grown, as well, and agriculturalists say that this system of plowing is much better than waiting until just before planting time. With favorable weather the county should produce a record-breaking oats crop this season.

EDELMAN GIVES UP

After being one of the four men to aw their way out of jail last Friday evening, Frank Edelman, who was awaiting trial on charges of burglary, decided that the best place for him was back in jail, and he consequently called the sheriff's office over the phone, and told them he wanted to give up. He was placed back in jail Monday.

AN INTERESTING STATEMENT

"Tanlac is the best remedy I have ever taken," says Mr. C. C. Parker of the Parker House, 510 S. Second street, Muskogee, Okla. Continuing, Mr. Parker says: "I suffered for many years with indigestion, constipation and nervousness and a general run down condition. My friends urged me to try Tanlac. I have not taken more than half a bottle and am delighted with results already obtained. I am entirely relieved of indigestion and constipation and no longer suffer with nervousness. I now sleep like a child. I gladly recommend Tanlac to all suffering as I did." Tanlac is sold exclusively in Durant by Corner Drug Store. (adv.)

C. P. McDARMENT IS BOUND OVER

Former Durant Boy is Held for Murder at a Preliminary Hearing at Wagoner—Janitor of the School is Star Witness.

The examining trial of Corley P. McDarment, a former Durant young man, who while teacher in the public schools at Wagoner is supposed to have killed one of his pupils and wounded another, was held at Wagoner Tuesday, and after a lengthy trial in which several witnesses were examined the defendant was bound over to await trial in the district court. McDarment did not take the stand in his own behalf.

The star witness at the hearing was the janitor of the school, who was the first person on the scene of the tragedy. He testified that McDarment's first words were: "Uncle Billy, they tried to kill me in there." The Moss boy, his head swathed in bandages, testified against his former teacher and clung to his story that McDarment was the aggressor. He admitted that himself, the dead boy, and another boy, had deviled the teacher and that they had made life almost unbearable for other teachers before McDarment.

The testimony of the janitor seemed to favor McDarment, and then again to favor the prosecution. He testified that he had to force the door into the room where the shooting was taking place, and that when he got inside he saw the two boys lying on the floor, the pistol beside the wounded lad, and that McDarment stood in the center of the room as in a dream.

The chief defense that McDarment's attorneys will make, it is said, will be the exhibition of a shirt with a bullet hole in the cuff and powder burns on the sleeve, which they will use as proof that McDarment did not hold the gun during the struggle.

Denison, Texas, March 1.—For the purpose of getting better acquainted with the people along the M., K. & T. and M., O. & G. in Oklahoma, the Denison Chamber of Commerce is arranging for a trade trip on March 9 as far north as Tupelo, Okla. The trip will be made by a special train and the party will be composed of about 100 representative business men of Denison. A band will furnish music at the various stops, which will include Colbert, Calera, Durant, Caddo, Caney, Atoka, Midway, Lehigh, Coalbrite, Centrahoma, and Tupelo on the Katy; Clarita, Wapanucka, Coleman, Kenefick, Achille and Kemp City on the M., O. & G. The schedule showing the time the train will arrive at each point will be announced later.

SCARCITY OF DYES

The big wholesalers of dry goods and cloths are predicting a famine of imported dye stuffs for this summer and fall that will probably be so far-reaching in its effects that fabrics dyed in fast colors will not only be prohibitive in price, but almost unobtainable. Local merchants who have recently been to market, report that they have with great difficulty been able to buy enough of certain lines of goods to replenish their stocks, and that prices have been higher than ever before.
